ASSISTING FAMILIES IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE WHOLE CHILD
THROUGH THE POWER OF THE GOSPEL.

PROVIDING CHRIST-CENTERED EDUCATION SINCE 1908

May 18, 2012

Shoestrings. I have a secret; my shoestrings are about to break. Seriously.

They have been ready to snap for about 8-10 weeks. I mean, frayed to a few strands. Every time I go to tie my shoes I have to stop, think, and gently handle the work of looping and knotting.

I told myself, back when I saw them falling apart just a little, that kids and families are sometimes like this.

Every day we get pulled, wrapped, knotted, sometimes double knotted. We are expected to hold tight no matter what the day brings. Sometimes we can't hold anymore, but we are retied and grab hold again. After doing this over and over and over we get some softspots. We will break without special attention or a gentle hand.

This Trinity teaching and support staff is not perfect. Students have excelled at Trinity for years in spite of our own humanness. But every teacher here recognizes the showstring kind of life you and your kids may be experiencing, and they love with a Christ inspired gentleness and attention that gives children the security needed to explore, learn, and grow.

Thank you for another fantastic year.
You are loved.
See you in worship.

*I have loved you with an everlasting love.
Jeremiah 31:3*

May Memory Gem

I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit: apart from me you can do nothing.

Backpacks

The books are put away, pencils and notebooks unloaded and now what do I do with the backpack? Maybe it will get reused next year, but if not, there is a great use for it. The orphans in Haiti would love to have any backpack. It is certainly better than the plastic bags they would otherwise use. Please bring any used backpacks, as long as it clean and only gently used, to the school office. We will get it where it needs to go!
