Back of Flyer should have:

YAT PAC stands for "Youth at Trinity, Puppets Acclaiming Christ."

Puppet Ministry is a fun and exciting way to explore the Bible, and maybe teach a few life lessons along the way. Throughout the time, puppets have always been effective tools in teaching, telling stories, and entertaining audiences of all ages. With a "Jim Henson-like" cast of colorful and memorable characters, the mission of the YAT PAC is to reach out and share the good news Jesus Christ.

Looking for ages 10 through adult!

Puppets are not just for the children. There are several members of our team who are teenagers or young adults, who absolutely love working with the puppets! And of course we can always use new voices. If you have a talent for crafting and sewing; perhaps assisting in prop production or creating new faces is right up your alley! If you're not sure how a puppet works, NO PROBLEM! We will teach you! Including all trade secrets and special effects~

An "Open House" and "Sign-up" for the Puppet Ministry will be planned for September 20 immediately following the 10:30 & 10:40 service. This would be an opportunity to see where the puppet team practices and to receive further information.

If you would like further information before then, please feel free to call Marie Schroeder at 715-803-5337 (email: ChakotayDgryphon@aol.com) or Marilyn Kunze at 715 - 803-5353 or email m104687@yahoo.com.

Please fill out the questionnaire and put in the box. Keep the top portion for your information. Thank You. The YAT PAC leaders.
